The UTC will identify and rank promising initiatives promoting city climate resilience. The planning profession is engaged in many innovations intended to support greater resilience; the UTC will foster exchange among educators and practitioners allowing for identification of successful practices aimed at advancing SDG13: Climate Action and SDG11: Sustainable Cities and Communities, and fostering a regenerative and resilient City We Need.

DAY ONE: 14 October, 11h00 – 12h30 UTC/GMT

Session One: Climate Resilience after COVID

- Keynote
  - Eleanor MOHAMMED
  - Canadian Institute of Planners

- Keynote
  - Adrienne GREVE
  - Cal Poly San Luis Obispo, USA

Session Two: Projects and Programs that Advance City Climate Resilience

- Panelist
  - Neelkanth CHHAYA
  - Srishti School of Design, India

- Panelist
  - Joan FITZGERALD
  - Northeastern Uni, USA

- Panelist
  - Alex NDIBWAMI
  - University of Rwanda

- Panelist
  - Anne-Marie HITIPEUW-GRIBNAU
  - City of the Hague, Netherlands

- Panelist
  - Khairiah TALHA
  - KW Associate Planners, Malaysia

REGISTRATION REQUIRED HERE
Day Two: 15 October, 11h00 – 12h30 UTC/GMT

Session Three: Prioritizing Actions to Advance Climate Resilience

Panelist
Josi SIRI
UN University
Global Health Institute, Malaysia

Panelist
Ally Hassan
NAMANGAYA
Ardhi University, Tanzania

Panelist
Anna HURLIMANN
University of Melbourne, Australia

Panelist
Giulio VERDINI
University of Westminster, UK

Session Four: The Way Forward

Speaker
Dyan CURRIE
Commonwealth Association of Planners

Speaker
Bernhard BARTH
UN-Habitat

Organisation Group
- Steven BLAND UN-Habitat
- Milena IVKOVIĆ ISOCARP
- Dhanashri MIRAJKAR DYP University SoA, Ambi
- Barbara NORMAN University of Canberra
- Olafiyin TAIWO Commonwealth Assn of Planners

Focal Point
- Bruce STIFTEL Global Planning Education Association Network (GPEAN)